On this date, Minister Florencio Randazzo gave a public statement on the termination by the Argentine government of the concessions held by América Latina Logística Central S.A. and América Logística Mesopotâmica S.A. (jointly “ALL Argentina”), in which the Company holds economic rights.

The company has not yet received any official information from the Argentine Government on the termination of its concession agreements in the country. Moreover, it will take all legal measures necessary as soon as it receives an official communication informing the decision.
