

For Immediate Release
September 7, 2010

IAIS Announces Appointments

CEDAR RAPIDS, IOWA – The Iowa Interstate Railroad Ltd. (IAIS) based in Cedar Rapids, Iowa has announced several appointments.

- Mr. Al Satunas has been promoted from Superintendent of Operations–Illinois to Chief Transportation Officer, where he assumes system-wide responsibility for the Company’s transportation operations.
- Mr. Joe Moon, previously Superintendent of Operations–Iowa, has been appointed General Superintendent Transportation.
- Mr. Jeff Johnson has been appointed to the position of Director–Safety & Security, where he will now undertake corporate-wide responsibility for safety and security issues.
- Mr. Randy Laughridge has moved from Assistant Chief Mechanical Officer to Chief Mechanical Officer, concurrent with the retirement of Mr. John Wiesch, the Company’s previous CMO.
- Mr. Andrew “Butch” Reid has been appointed to the position of Superintendent–Mechanical with day-to-day duties overseeing the Company’s mechanical operations.

IAIS President Mr. Dennis H. Miller proffered these remarks: “The continued growth of the Iowa Interstate Railroad and our internal planning for the future spurred these changes. We are confident that these promotions will provide long-term stability to these vital areas of the company.”

Founded in 1984, the Iowa Interstate Railroad, Ltd. is a privately held, regional railroad that operates across the Council Bluffs, Iowa to Chicago, IL corridor with a connection to Peoria, Il. It further provides freight rail service, directly or indirectly, to the Quad Cities (IA and IL), Des Moines, Cedar Rapids, and Iowa City.

CONTACT: Dennis H. Miller, President
(319) 298 5422
DHMiller@IAISRR.com

###