IAIS Announces Promotion of Carrie Evans

CEDAR RAPIDS, IOWA – The Iowa Interstate Railroad Ltd. (IAIS) announced today that Ms. Carrie Evans has been promoted to Vice President of Sales & Marketing.

Ms. Evans joined Iowa Interstate Railroad in January 1998 as the Marketing Coordinator. In 2000, she joined IRG (Innovative Rail Group) as Manager–Marketing & Pricing, handling our intermodal business. In January 2002, she accepted the position of Marketing Manager at IAIS with responsibility for the intermodal and carload business. In November 2006, Ms. Evans was promoted to Sales Manager. In this position, she sought out new customers and nurtured existing business relationships. Her diligence and perseverance resulted in growing IAIS’ business at attracting several large new customers and traffic movements.

Ms. Evans will continue to work closely with the company’s key customers. She is responsible for maintaining all customer relationships and generating business growth. Her marketing initiatives will include meeting with economic, industrial and commercial development leaders and potential customers to develop new and expanded industries along IAIS’ rail lines.

Ms. Evans graduated from the University of Iowa with a Bachelor of Business Administration degree in 1997.

Founded in 1984, the Iowa Interstate Railroad, Ltd. is a privately held, regional railroad that operates across the Council Bluffs, Iowa to Chicago, IL corridor with a connection to Peoria, IL. It further provides freight rail service, directly or indirectly, to the Quad Cities (IA and IL), Des Moines, Cedar Rapids, and Iowa City.
