Steel City Flyer Announces Additional Service and Schedule Enhancements

Pittsburgh, Pennsylvania — In response to evolving customer preferences, the Steel City Flyer has added two new trips between Pittsburgh and Harrisburg and adjusted its schedule on weekday morning runs.

Two additional trips have been added for weekend travelers to Pittsburgh. A new Friday evening Flyer leaves Harrisburg at 8:00 PM arriving in Pittsburgh at 11:30 PM. Its Sunday evening eastbound counterpart leaves Pittsburgh at 4:00 PM and arrives in Harrisburg at 7:50 PM. This schedule makes it easier for people to spend a longer day in Harrisburg on Friday, or connect from Amtrak service leaving East Coast points late in the afternoon, and still get to Pittsburgh for the weekend. The new Sunday service enables travelers from Pittsburgh to get a good night's rest before an early morning meeting on Monday in Harrisburg, or connect to the last eastbound Amtrak service to Philadelphia on Sunday evening, with onward connections to New Jersey and New York.

Other improvements regard the daily morning departures from both Harrisburg and Pittsburgh. The morning Flyer from Downtown Pittsburgh now leaves at 6:15 AM enabling passengers to attend meetings in Harrisburg which begin at 10:00 AM or connect with Amtrak's "Keystone" service to arrive at Lancaster at 11:34 AM, Philadelphia at 12:43 PM, and New York at 2:21 PM.

Traveling westbound, the morning Flyer leaves Harrisburg at 8:40 AM to allow passengers to arrive in Pittsburgh in time for lunch. Travelers can also leave Philadelphia at 6:25 AM or Lancaster at 7:35 AM via Amtrak to catch the same Flyer from Harrisburg.

The Steel City Flyer began service Thanksgiving week to rave reviews. It replaces air service between Pittsburgh and Harrisburg which US Airways discontinued in September and has also proven popular with business travelers who formerly drove between the two cities. Drivers wary of crossing the mountains in winter have discovered that the Pennsylvania Turnpike is actually a scenic highway as long as someone else is taking the wheel, and continuous Wi-Fi service makes the time on board productive.
