

RDC

Press Release

May 05, 2025

RDC appoints Ida Posner to COO, Nate Asplund to support newly formed Pop-Up Metro/TDI joint venture.

PITTSBURGH, PA – RDC appoints Ida Posner to COO, Nate Asplund to support newly formed Pop-Up Metro/TDI joint venture.

Railroad Development Corp. (RDC) has promoted Ida Posner to Chief Operating Officer (COO) of RDC and appointed Nate Asplund, President of Pop-Up Metro, to lead the integration of the newly formed RDC/TDI joint venture.

Posner joined RDC in 2017 and has served as VP, Strategic Planning, since 2020. She serves as a Director of the Iowa Interstate Railroad, Eurorail, RDC-Deutschland, and RailPulse. In her new role as COO, she will be responsible for managing the internal operations of RDC while continuing to lead strategy and business development for the firm.

Asplund, President of Pop-Up Metro (PUM), will step in to a full-time role to support the newly formed joint venture with Transport Design International (TDI) to expand and service growing rail mobility markets on both sides of the Atlantic.

Henry Posner III, Chairman of RDC, commented on the changes, stating “In a pivotal year for Pop-Up Metro, we are focusing Nate’s expertise and industry connections on the successful merger and integration of the two companies. Working alongside our partners in the UK, we are confident in Nate’s ability to jump-start a number of near term commercial opportunities.

And in a pivotal year for RDC, we are taking advantage of Ida’s evolution as a leader who has earned respect at the industry level. With the increasing complexity of our environment and the opportunities facing us, her industry knowledge and wisdom will help us to strengthen and grow our portfolio of railroads and rail-related businesses”